

Áudio

Para ouvir os áudios desta mídia é necessário fazer o download do arquivo.

To boot

There are many verbs we can use to say that we no longer work at a company or school. Most of them represent a bad situation, meaning that we had to leave work against our will.

See some of this verbs:

TO DISMISS/TO DISCHARGE/TO BOOT

To officially make someone leave their job.

Mary was dismissed from her job.

His mother was discharged from her job.

Mr. Tennant will give Sarah the boot if she keeps arriving late.

TO QUIT

When you decide to leave your job.

Sarah quit her previous job because she didn't earn much money.

TO RESIGN

When you officially tell your employer that you are leaving the job.

Sarah's cousin resigned from her job as a school secretary.

TO HIRE

The opposite of TO FIRE.

Mr. Tennant hired Amélie some months ago.